

Northwest Pastors' Day

Exploring Holiness in the 21st Century

Hosted by the Wesleyan-Holiness movements of Northwest Oregon and Southwest Washington

May 4, 2010 - 9 AM to 3PM
Portland Central Church of the Nazarene
9715 SE Powell Blvd., Portland, OR

Featured Speakers

Speaking on "What Does it Mean to Preach "Holiness Today?" Dr. Jim Garlow is the senior pastor of Skyline Wesleyan Church in La Mesa, California. He is also a best selling author, sought after speaker, and an acknowledged expert on both church history and leadership principles. His academic journey has included Drew University (Ph.D. in Historical Theology), Princeton Theological Seminary (Master of Theology), Asbury Theological Seminary (Master of Divinity), Southern Nazarene University (B.A. & M.A.), and Oklahoma Wesleyan University (A.A.)

Speaking on "The Heart of Wesleyan-Holiness Theology", Dr. Diane Leclerc is Professor of Historical Theology and Homiletics at Northwest Nazarene University in Nampa, ID. She is also the author of the Church of the Nazarene's Centennial Initiative upcoming holiness theology textbook. Her academic journey has also included Drew University (Ph.D.), as well as Nazarene Theological Seminary (Master of Divinity), and Eastern Nazarene College.

Our Association will be paying for our pastors' meal. Therefore each pastor (and/or spouse) wanting to attend will need to call 1-800-873-7729 and register. RSVP is a must!! Deadline to register is April 27, 2010

The purpose of the Northwest Pastors' Day –Exploring Holiness in the 21st Century is to create an opportunity for conversation regarding the message/life of holiness and its power in engaging and transforming communities. Ample time has been set-aside in the day's schedule for this conversation to take place.